

Visitors to Canada Travel Insurance

$50,000

Allianz

Global Assistance

What's not covered?

Travel insurance is designed to cover losses that are sudden and unforeseen. It does not cover every situation and expense. The following is not a complete list of exclusions. For a full list of exclusions, please refer to your Policy.

General Exclusions – Apply to ALL Coverages

You will not be paid for expenses that are in any way due to, contributed by, or resulting from:

- Pre-existing medical condition that is not stable before the effective coverage date. The stability period varies based on your age,
 - If you are 59 years of age or younger: 90 days
 - If you are 60 to 89 years of age: 180 days
- Any on-going treatment unless approved in advance by Allianz Global Assistance.
- Suicide or self-inflicted injury.
- All matters related to pregnancy.
- Abuse of alcohol or drugs including misuse of medication.
- Participating in high-risk or professional sport activities.
- Sickness or injury caused by a motor vehicle accident while also covered under a motor vehicle insurance policy.
- Travel to secure medical treatment.
- Travelling against the advice of a physician.
- Treatment that is non-emergency or elective.
- Rehabilitation or convalescent care, dental or cosmetic surgery.
- Treatment or services prohibited under a government hospital/medical plan.
- Travel to regions where a travel warning to avoid all travel, or to avoid non-essential travel, has been issued by the Canadian Government.
- Act of war, terrorism or any nuclear occurrence.